Are your lips real? = ...

Rude! (lol) Yes, and for the record, everything else is as well. But yeah, don't feel bad about asking. I totally understand the curiosity, what with, all of the "enhancing" going on nowadays. Oh and by the way, I never ever "pout". Pet peeve #465, lol.

One thing that most people don't know about you, but they will now = I am totally ignorant when it comes to "Make-Up Application". That's why I hardly ever Write about it. (lol) "Skin Care" however, is another story. My regular "Make-Up Routine" is very simple - Lipstick/Lip Gloss and when I feel like it, Eye Make-Up (Eye Shadow, Mascara, & Eyeliner).

Things you are weak for = Sand! I just have to go play in it! No Sandbox, Beach, or Hourglass Timer is safe from me. (lol) Peppermint things. Cookies, Lotion, Candles... Sigh...it's all so glorious. Sales and Sparkly things. "Pretty..." as I wander aimlessly towards the object, lol.
